Why Agents Use GlueDog

Simplify Your Tech Stack. Reduce Repetitive Admin.

We eliminate the need to enter the same data into multiple platforms, upload documents more than once, or manually download supplier content. By integrating everything into your CRM, GlueDog helps your team get more done in less time - with fewer mistakes.

✓ We eliminate double data entry

No more typing the same address or contact details into multiple platforms — we sync everything seamlessly.

✓ We keep your data consistent and up-to-date

Our integrations ensure that your records are always accurate across all systems, reducing costly mistakes.

✓ We reduce your admin burden

From uploading documents to updating contacts, we automate repetitive tasks so your team can focus on what really matters.

✓ We streamline your workflows

By connecting the tools you already use, we make your day-to-day operations faster and more efficient.

It's Been a Total Game-Changer!

We've been using Glue Dog for a while now after being introduced to it through our CRM Apex27 to link Made Snappy – it's been a total game-changer. It saves us so much time, and honestly, it's so easy to use that we've barely needed any support. That said, the support team is excellent and always there if you need them. I'd much rather pay for something that works and saves us time, and GlueDog absolutely does that.

Why Agents Use GlueDog | 3

Integrations Made Simple

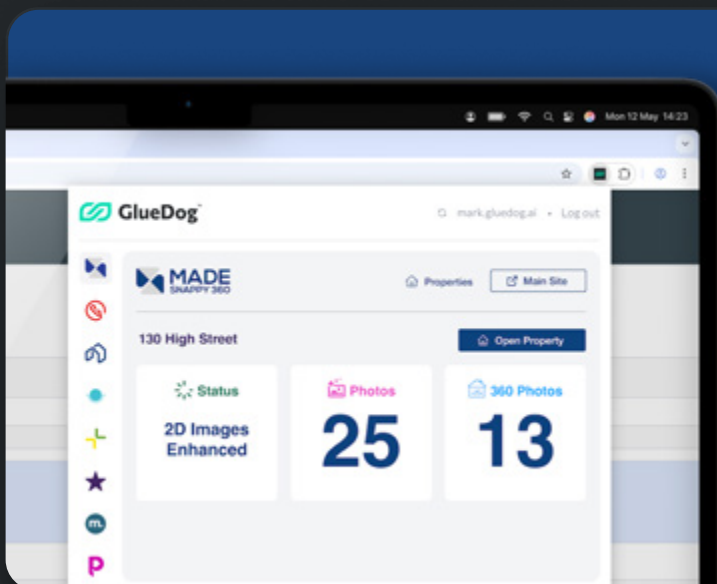

Introducing GlueDog's NEW Google Chrome Extension

GlueDog's new Chrome Extension is designed to make your daily workflow faster and simpler. Directly within your CRM, you can now access key supplier tools, view enhanced property data, and trigger actions - without switching tabs or logging into multiple systems.

Whether it's checking on photo enhancements, syncing virtual tours, or accessing property packs, everything is right where you need it.

It's a smarter, more connected way to work - seamlessly integrated into your existing setup.

Create Floor Plans & Virtual Tours in Under 10 Minutes

Creating floor plans and virtual tours is now faster than ever. With 360-degree imaging technology, estate agents can generate high-quality visuals in minutes. Tools like Made Snappy 360 streamline the process, reducing admin tasks and enhancing listings. By adopting these innovations, agents boost efficiency and offer buyers and tenants a more immersive experience, making property marketing smarter and more engaging.

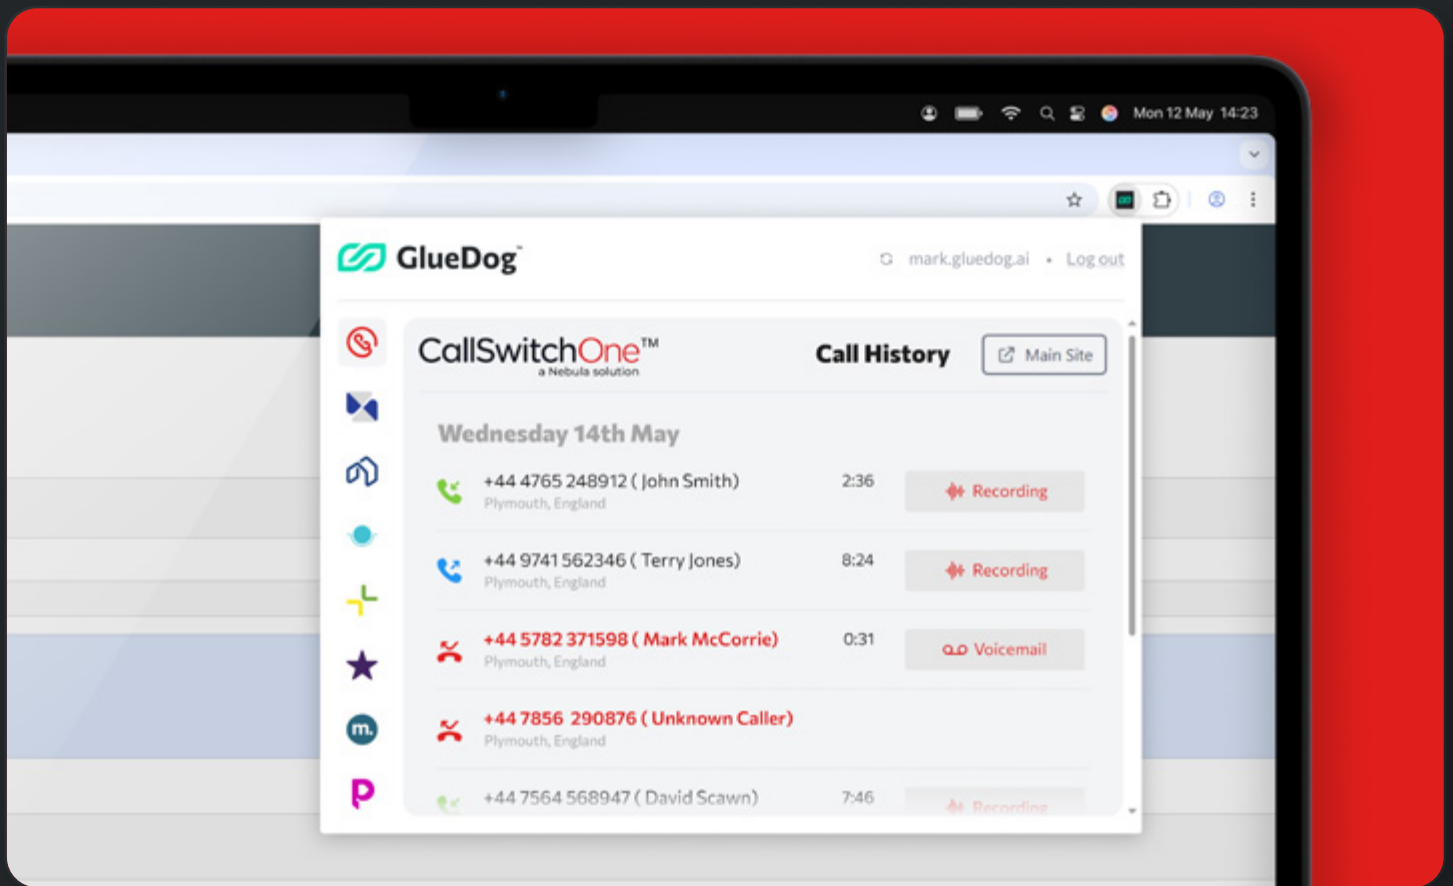

CallSwitchOne™

a Nebula solution

Brought to you by  GLOBAL4

Unified Communications for Modern Workplaces

CallSwitch One is a cloud-based platform that unifies voice, video, messaging, and collaboration tools in one easy-to-use interface across devices. Features include drag-and-drop call routing, IVR menus, and CRM integrations with Salesforce, HubSpot, and more. Its scalable design, open APIs, and white-label options help boost productivity and streamline communication. Learn more at callswitchone.com or global4.co.uk.

With 25 years of experience in the estate agency sector, Global 4 understands the critical need to never miss a call, deliver outstanding customer service, and respond faster than the competition.

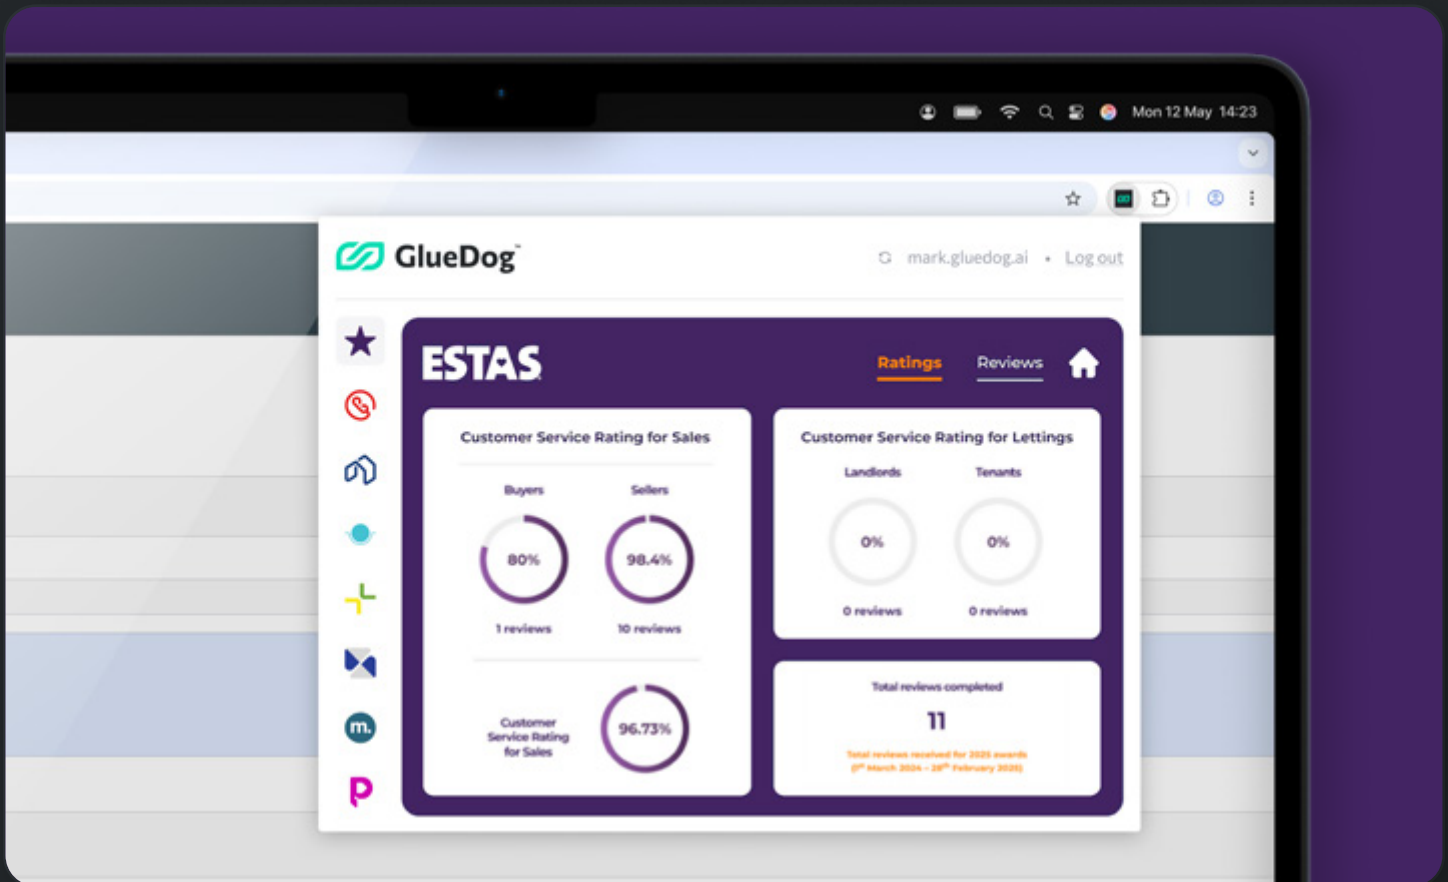

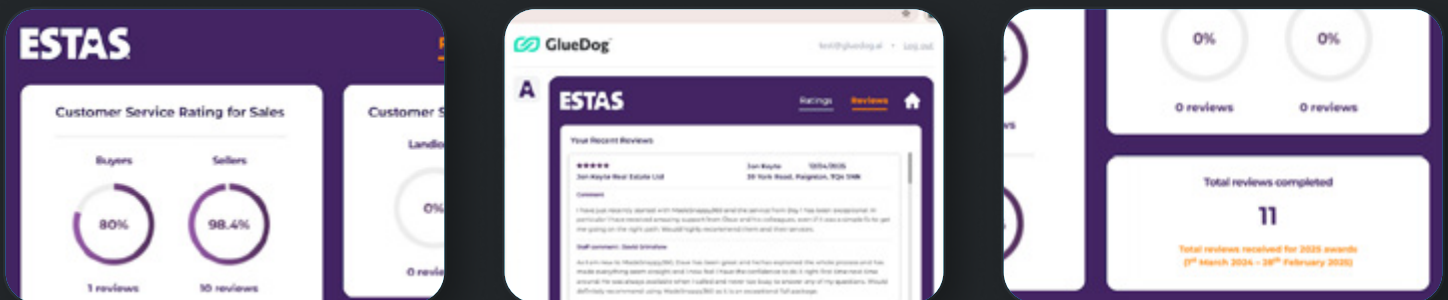

By combining deep industry knowledge with advanced technology, Gluedog facilitates integration between Callswitch One and your core systems. While the phone system includes all standard telephony features, it also offers enhanced functionality like screen popping and click-to-dial—surpassing the limitations of older TAPI-based systems. The result? Staff can greet callers with a personalised touch, instantly recognising who's on the line and responding efficiently. Outbound calls are also quicker, initiated directly from the browser with a single click.
